Mustard is more than just a faithful companion for sausages and Co. Rainer H. Baumgartner gives it a new life. Because he serves mustard in more than 20 flavors, all of which surprise and delight the palate. This is also possible because every jar of mustard is made entirely by hand. Admission including tasting takes about 1.5 hours and includes:

- an eq. Frizzante, wine, 1/3l beer or non-alcoholic
- Lecture on mustard (history, health, production, use and much more) approx. 20 min
- Tasting of currently around 24 types of mustard
- 2 sandwiches per person

Continue to Grundlsee.

The 3 lakes tour takes you by boat first across the largest lake in Styria, the Grundlsee. Then there is a walk of about 30 minutes - this is how you reach Lake Toplitz. The journey takes you along waterfalls in traditional wooden boats, so-called boats further on to the last stop: a short stretch of forest, which leads to the remote Kammersee. After a stay very close to the source of the Traun, take the ferry back across the Toplitzsee and from there walk back to Gößl, where your bus will pick you up again.

Day 3 The Traunsee

Our tip for the morning:

Take a trip to the small Taferlklaussee, which is located on the Großalm Landesstraße on the way from Traunsee to Attersee. There is a so-called "WohlfühlWeg" - a flat path that leads around the lake and is ideal for all age groups. It's a beautiful place!

Drive to Gmunden

Admission and guided tour of the Gmundner Ceramics Manufactory - duration approx. 1 hour

Genuine craftsmanship is not old-fashioned, it is timeless. You can also experience this at the manufacturing site in Gmunden during a factory tour. In addition to a short film, some particularly valuable exhibits, a tactile station and a photo station, you will receive detailed insights into the creation of the unique Gmundner ceramics. Turning, glazing, painting, flaming and firing – experience how much love and craftsmanship Gmundner ceramics are made with.

You continue to the center of Gmunden, where you are expected for a guided tour - duration approx. 1 hour.

In the late afternoon we go on a sunset cruise on Lake Traunsee

Departure approx. 4.45 p.m./5 p.m. - duration approx. 1.5 - 2 hours.

Enjoy the evening boat trip on the Traunsee, the 2nd largest lake in Upper Austria. From Gmunden it goes in the direction of Altmünster, Traunkirchen to Ebensee and then back again, always with a wonderful view of the surrounding landscape and the imposing mountains.

In the evening you enjoy a Brettljause in an inn in the Gmunden area.

(no dinner in the hotel)

Day 4 Departure
